When Will Census Become Effective Reduce Offices?

A pertinent question has been raised in many counties of Texas. When will the new census figures become official, and what will be the effect on public offices?

Several counties which have had separate offices for the sheriff, tax assessor and collector are starting to wonder. For instance, Crosby county has been in the population bracket of more than 10,000 population, which requires the separation of the two offices. The recent unofficial census count shows that the population has declined to less than 10,000 population.

Candidates who have announced for the two offices are speculating. They wonder what will happen after January 1.

The general opinion is that no official census will be given out from Washington until after January 1st. These figures may differ from the unofficial reports which are given out in the various districts.

Therefore it is unlikely that any public office will be affected until after the official census is published early in 1951. Those elected this year will therefore serve out their terms.

The same will probably be true of counties which have increased in population from the bracket less than 10,000 to a figure more than 10,000 population.

YES, IT'S FUN To Publish Your Weekly Paper

It's fun to publish a weekly newspaper!

A lot of folks think that the newspaper staff has nothing to do—that is, much to do—from the day the paper goes to press until next press day.

As a matter of record one issue of the paper has not been printed until plans are being made for the next issue. Here at the News office where we print four pages at a time, there are four runs on the regular 16-page editions. When we have a 20-page issue it requires five runs; and six runs on a 24-page issue.

Last issue was an unusual week. We had ten marriages to record; together with a number of wedding showers and announcements of engagements.

In all there were thirty stories of society interest, spread over 187½ inches of the paper. That was almost 1½ pages of the 16-page issue. Included were the 10 wedding stories, together with several pictures of the brides.

Exclusive of the society items, there were 110 local stories about your friends and neighbors. In all there were 140 stories about local events, together with 52 features and the usual three-columns of editorial.

All in all, not a bad week, and the issue was sufficient to make all of the staff very proud. Since nearly every extra copy was quickly sold, you the readers, must have liked the issue too!

Thanks.

It's fun to publish a country weekly, serving such grand folks.

Deadline For Candidates Set Next Saturday

Candidates for county and precinct offices must file their applications for a place on the Democratic ballots before Saturday night.

So far all announced candidates have had their applications. There have been rumors during the past week of last minute candidates, but so far none have showed up to ask for a place on the ballots.

The County Executive Committee will meet next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the district court room for the purpose of drawing for places on the primary ballots; for selecting judges for the July and August primaries; and for setting the fees of the candidates for places on the primary ballots. Local candidates are forced by law to provide the money to hold the double primary.

There will be a long list of candidates for state offices, with the chances for holding a run-off in several races.

All county races will be decided in the July primary as there are only two candidates running in each contested race. There are several candidates running without opposition.

There is a possibility of a runoff in one precinct race, with three candidates for County Commissioner in Precinct No. 2.

Candidates have until June 24 to pay their fee to the County Executive Committee for the expense of the primaries.

Local candidates must file their first expense account with the county clerk between the dates of June 22 and June 26. They may file their first report late in order to include their filing fee.

Absentee voting will start on July 2 and continue until July 18.

Recreation in Canyon Gets a Splendid Start

Canyon's summer recreation program got underway Monday when registration was held at the two playgrounds which are to be open throughout the summer months.

The two playgrounds will be located at the high school and Buffalo Stadium.

These two playgrounds will be under the supervision of trained personnel. Loyd Johnson, assistant coach at Canyon high school, and Miss Leatrice West, physical education teacher at Tulsa will be in charge of the high school playground. Mrs. Sammie Malone and Joe Davis, graduate and student respectively of West Texas State, will be at the Buffalo playground.

The playgrounds will be open from 8:30 until 10:30 in the mornings and from 3 until 6 in the afternoons. Swimming lessons will be offered at the college pool on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings at 8:00 a. m.

The range of the recreation will be broad including a wide variety of athletics, dramatics, arts, crafts, and games. It is planned to reach all ages and groups, and it is hoped that all the young people of Canyon and nearby communities will take advantage of the training that will be offered them throughout the summer.

It is believed by the Canyon community council that the children of Canyon will be given training that few towns its size offer their young people.

Crowell Gives Schedules For Swimming Pool

Time schedules for the swimming pool have been released by the summer pool director, Odis Crowell.

According to Mr. Crowell, the pool will be reserved from 9 o'clock to 10:30 for Canyon recreational use; from 10:30 to 2:30 for college classes; from 2:30 to 6:30 each day of the week for public use; from 7:30 to 9:30, for rental by groups or individuals.

Life guards for the summer are Don Briggs, who will also be the swimming instructor, Wayne Hill and Bill Cross.

Admission is 25 cents and season tickets are on sale at the pool.

E. A. Stocker Is Candidate Office Commissioner 2

The News is authorized to announce the candidacy of E. A. Stocker as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, Precinct No. 2. His announcement follows:

"To the voters of Precinct No. 2: I hereby announce my candidacy for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, Randall County.

"I am 34 years old—a land owner and tax payer of this county and precinct. I was born and reared in Randall county, and have lived here for the past four years. I know most of the people who live in this precinct, and most of the voters know me.

"I feel qualified for this office and believe that I can make you a good and honest public servant. If elected I will favor no particular group and will strive to be fair to all, with economy in mind at all times. I am for good farm-to-market roads as well as good county government.

"I will try to see each of you voters before the primary election in July, but if I miss anyone, I will appreciate your vote and support," stated Mr. Stocker.

Another Road Paving South From Amarillo

There is hope that the extension of Washington Street paving in Precinct No. 4 will be let in July, according to Chas. Y. Johnson, commissioner of that precinct.

This pavement was approved by the State Highway Commission as a farm-to-market road in Randall county. The cost was estimated at $52,500, with the county furnishing a 100-foot right-of-way.

Nine blocks of the pavement will be in the city of Amarillo, and that city is required to furnish the necessary right-of-way from the junction of 36th Street and Washington, which is Highway 87.

New High Record Set With West Texas Enrollment

Enrollment at West Texas State College set a new high Thursday when the closing period of enrollment ended. The number who paid their fees for the full summer's work reached 1143.

This number is an increase of 153 over the total of last summer. However, this number does not include irregular students who will be here only for short periods during the summer. The registration is for college enrollment only and does not include students who are enrolled in the training school.

The Gilmer-Aiken law has caused this large enrollment, with teachers seeking to improve their diplomas under the terms of the law.

The largest college enrollment in the history of the institution was 1296, and this number may be topped with the total enrollment of the summer, it is believed in college circles.

Leases Are Taken By Big Companies For Oil Drilling

It is evident that oil companies are still interested in drilling operations in Randall county in spite of the number of dry holes which have been sunk in this territory. Another wildcat is going down on the Currie ranch, north of the Palo Duro canyon. A test was sunk on the south side of the canyon two years ago.

Various reports of oil activities have been made here in recent months. Leasing over the west and southwest part of the county has been active in recent weeks.

Canyon Population Shows 4,349 Persons

Randall county has a population of 13,732. Canyon has a population of 4,349.

Randall county's growth has been a little more than 91% during the past 10 years or an increase from 7,185 in 1940 to 13,732 in 1950, or a total increase of 6,547 persons during the 10 year period.

Canyon's growth has been from 2,622 in 1940 to 4,349 in 1950. This is a growth of nearly 66%, or a total of 1,727.

Walter Shaller, district supervisor of the census, released the figures Tuesday morning to The Canyon News. The figures will not be released from his office in Amarillo until Wednesday morning. Mr. Shaller stated that he did not have a breakdown of the figures showing the number of Amarillo citizens who lived in Randall county.

Mr. Shaller stated that his office would be closed early next week. If there is any person living in Randall county on April 1st who was not counted in the census that they should contact him in Amarillo immediately.

According to his statement, these figures are unofficial, and the census will not be official until they are published in Washington early in 1951.

Parker and Whitlow Form Partnership of All Businesses

A partnership has been entered into between J. O. Parker of Canyon and Pete Whitlow of Canyon.

The two men have owned the Happy Elevator at Happy, and recently increased the capacity of the elevator to take care of added needs of the business.

In their new partnership they have added the lumber business which has been conducted as the Whitlow Lumber Company in Happy, and the extensive stock-farming operations of Mr. Parker.

Mrs. Parker is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Foster of Canyon. They completed a new home in Canyon a few months ago and will reside here for the benefit of the schools.

Mr. Whitlow will continue living in Happy.

Sheriffs of Four Counties Met Here Thursday

The sheriffs of four counties held an informal meeting in Canyon Thursday to investigate cattle theft and forgeries which are common in the four counties.

Sheriff M. E. Cantrell was named secretary of the association which was formed by the sheriffs from Randall, Castro, Swisher and Armstrong counties.

Another meeting will be held in the near future when it is hoped that more information will be uncovered, especially on the two common problems of this area.

While there has always been the closest co-operation between the law enforcement officers of the Panhandle, it was believed that an organization with regular meetings would be of great advantage to the citizens of the four counties.

McDonald's Name is Barred From Demo Party July Ballots

The State Democratic Executive Committee has barred the name of J. E. McDonald, State Agriculture Commissioner, from the Democratic ballots. McDonald has brought a mandamus suit to have his name re-instated, claiming that he is a Democrat.

McDonald was barred because of constant support of the Republican candidates for President in the last three elections, and his recent endorsement of Ben Guill from this district.

The name of McDonald will not be on the certified list of candidates to be acted upon by the Randall County Executive Committee next Monday unless a miracle happens.

Lions Defeated Rotarians Friday in Softball Game

The Lions Club came out with the long end of the score Friday night in the first softball game of the summer, winning by a score of 21 to 11.

With the exception of the first inning when the Lions ran in 10 scores, the game was played in a rather even basis.

Few changes were made in the Rotary lineup, while the Lions fielded two teams with frequent substitutions.

Color was added to the game when two Highway Patrolmen showed up, with full sidearm attire, to officiate.

All Citizens Urged Visit at Palo Duro Park

There are many Canyon citizens who have not made a visit to the Palo Duro State Park this year. They have not viewed the wonderful scenery which nature has provided, and have not seen the improvements which have been made in the Park.

John McCarty, concessionaire, is doing a swell job in developing and advertising the Palo Duro, which is right in the front yard of Canyon. Canyon people should be vitally interested in assisting with the development of the Palo Duro.

A lot of folks are under the false impression that McCarty is "making a mint of money" out of the Park. This is entirely false. Under present conditions, and until the debt against the land is paid off, the concessionaire cannot make much money. While the attendance has been boosted considerably by the Treasure Hunt which was started last year, there is not enough revenues for the Park to make money for any person who attempts to put over a great program for the Park.

Mr. McCarty has talked about giving up his contract with the State of Texas simply because he is not getting adequate support from Canyon and Amarillo. This would be a tragedy for the future development of the Park. When the road is paved in the Park this year, indications are fine for a much larger attendance.

McCarty has spent thousands of dollars in erecting highway signs, and these are drawing thousands of tourists from all over the nation.

Canyon citizens and business men should meet with John McCarty and get first hand information as to their obligations and opportunities in developing the Palo Duro. The time will be well spent if all citizens get first hand information as to what McCarty is attempting to do, single handed at the Park, and to view the possibilities of the Palo Duro State Park.

Hegedus Family Second D. P.s Randall County

The Hegedus family, Displaced Persons from Hungary, is now living in Canyon, temporarily in an apartment owned by Mrs. Carl Heizer at 1609 Second Avenue.

This is the family which came to Wayside to do farming work. It was found, however, that Mr. Hegedus did not yet know enough English to take instruction for the work he was to do. It has been arranged that he is to do cleaning work at the Neblett Hospital. In this work, his wife, who speaks excellent English, will be able to help him until he gets a working vocabulary.

Dr. Neblett made the arrangement when the problem was presented to him by the Displaced Persons Committee.

Mr. Hegedus worked in Hungary as a cabinet maker. Mrs. Hegedus has worked since she was fourteen as a typist. They are members of the Lutheran church.

Residents of Canyon who wish to contribute sheets and pillowcases, towels, dish cloths, or food to this family may see any member of the Displaced Persons Committee: Miss M. Moss Richardson, Mrs. Richard Gidden, Marion Higdon, Ples Harper, C. R. Burrow, or Mrs. Joseph Findley.

County Agent With 4-H Boys at A. & M.

County Agent H. E. Shahan left Saturday for College Station where he accompanied a group of 4-H Club boys from Randall county.

The group will return next Sunday.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Texas Gets a Swift Kick in the Pants by the Supreme Court

We wonder how the fellows down state feel who dug up $100,000 to help the President whip the friends of the South in districts outside of the State of Texas.

You will remember that this was the price paid by the Democrats of Texas for the privilege of hearing Vice President Barkley when he talked at Austin. The boys down Austin way gloried in the fact that Texans dug up more money for this fete than was given to the Truman war chest by any other state in the union. The former mayor of Austin, who has been a substantial follower of the Truman camp, made the presentation.

All that Texas got out of the deal was a swift kick in the pants.

We are told that the United States government is bigger than Texas and that the oil along the coast of Texas belongs to the federal government simply because Washington was able to take it away from us. The Supreme Court, appointed by the New Deal outfit, gave this decision. It would have been very, very surprising if the Supreme Court had returned any other kind of decision.

A couple of years ago we heard an attorney of Long Beach, Calif., tell what would happen to the city if the federal government took the oil field which had been developed within that city's coastal territory. Long Beach has enjoyed this big oil field for many, many years. We know nothing of the history of California and do not know whether Long Beach has any legal title to this land.

We do know that Texas has a legal and moral right to its coastal lands and its coastal oils. If Washington decides to steal these millions of dollars worth of oil which belong to the school children of Texas, it will be the case of the big boy stealing from the little chap who is unable to protect himself. It will be the same story of the bully who runs over the fellow who is smaller or weaker than himself.

Congress can right this unjust wrong, but we doubt very much whether Congress will act. You will remember that the Democrats in Congress are usually pretty well sold on the Truman program, while the Republicans would hardly go out of their way to help a state which got itself in such a mess by its wholehearted support of men who now prove to be traitors to the Texas cause.

General Ernest O. Thompson comes up with a solution. He advocates that Texas divide itself into five states, and when eight new Senators go to Washington they will hold the balance of power to undo the thing which the Supreme Court is now seeking to do.

We shall see what we shall see. The blackest part of the picture is that the taxpayers of Texas will have to dig deep and deeper to replace the cash which the federal government is going to take from the pockets of the people of Texas.

Negroes In Texas College Part of National Plan for Minorities

The Supreme Court was expected to open the doors of our universities and colleges to those Negroes who might attend. This process has been underway for months.

It was really too bad that the University of Texas did not advocate the opening of that institution for higher education to the Negroes who wished to attend instead of standing by and allowing the state to spend millions of dollars for the founding of a new Negro University at Houston.

While we have never professed to know much about the black race—since we have never lived among or even near the race—we have held to the theory that if the institutions of higher learning of Texas were opened to the Negro, very few would attend.

When you tell a fellow that he cannot do a certain thing, he often gets the urge to do that very thing. That is possibly the way of many of the Negroes of Texas. They have an idea that they want to go to the university until they are confronted with all of the difficulties of making the grades in the institution.

Texas Press Meets This Week

The Texas Press Association is a larger organization than the Panhandle Press Association, but it seldom draws a larger crowd of publishers to the annual conventions. While the Newsman has been a member of Texas Press for about 38 years, we have not attended the sessions regularly. We have planned a number of times to go, but something always interferes with our plans.

This year we will make another attempt to go. The convention will be held in Fort Worth. Amon G. Carter of the Star-Telegram will entertain the association at his Shady Oak ranch Friday night. (If Amon isn't looking, we intend getting away with one of his white hats).

The agricultural experts fear another dust bowl disaster but the ordinary citizen will not be disturbed unless it affects his bill of fare.

We can't tell you whether there will be a depression but we can tell you that those who have money in the bank will be bothered the least.

The morals of the world will not improve until the average man and woman, in finding out what a man has, will want to know how he got it.

People who worry about the books that young people read might take a squint at some of the magazines.

The unrest that plagues the present age is a strange disease that is located underneath the human scalp.

Sometimes we wonder whether higher education is becoming something of a racket.

Voters Will Have a Long List of Candidates For July Primary

Those who thought this would be a drab political year are doomed to disappointment.

There will be plenty of names to VOTE AGAINST on the Texas primary ballot. You understand that we do not support candidates, but do a lot of marking AGAINST candidates.

Several years ago an Attorney General ruled that the intent of the voter must be taken into consideration by election judges. That is, if the voter came from a state where he was accustomed to make an X in front of the name of the candidate he was supporting, then that ballot would count in Texas.

A recent ruling outlaws such a ballot. The voter MUST mark out all names of candidates whom he does not favor, and leave only the name of the single candidate whom he favors in all races.

Texans will be confronted with a long primary ballot this year. There are seven candidates for Governor; 11 candidates for Lieutenant Governor; from two to eight candidates for every state office.

Local candidates are not so numerous as in former years. They are the ones who must pay the expenses of the double primary, and from all indications their fees will be higher than usual this year.

The life of candidates is not altogether rosy.

Wonder Why President Has Not Appointed Negroes to Office?

The Supreme Court has opened the dining cars to Negroes and no longer will there be a section for segregation of the races.

This is the first step. It will not be long before the Supreme Court will open all dining rooms, pullmans and bus seats to the Negroes. It is only another step toward opening all white schools for admission to the Negro children.

Our politically minded Supreme Court may be judicious in its findings, but very likely they are prompted by the fact that the Democratic party needs the support of minority groups, like the Negroes, in critical political sections of the nation.

The Supreme Court has made it mandatory for counties where there are large numbers of Negroes to use the blacks on juries.

We are wondering why the President has not appointed some Negro to the Supreme Court, or some of the other important courts of the nation? While advocating that the blacks be recognized in political subdivisions of the nation, the President has carefully avoided placing the Negro in vital positions where the President has contact with that individual.

Wonder why?

Clean Up Other Deficits, and Newspapers Will Pay Their Part

Congress threatens to do something about the economy wave which has hit the postoffice department. As usual, the mail boys are making the charge that the newspapers should be penalized to make up the postal deficit.

It has been pointed out that 1c postcards, which are used by millions of big firms, cost the department about 2-3c to print and handle.

The government is paying subsidies on parcel post, money orders and air mail. The government loss on circulars is amazing.

If and when the department gets around to clear up the mess made by these deficits, the newspapers will be willing to stand some kind of an increase. We object to all of the deficit being piled on the publications which do not create this deficit.

Magazines are being shipped by the millions of tons to central places for distribution at a loss to the government, yet very little is said about this waste to parcel post.

Bagworms Again Work on Trees

The bag worms are again with us. The worms stripped many good trees in Canyon last year, and will do a more thorough job this year.

We are told that bag worms may be controlled by spraying at critical periods by the use of adequate poison.

Get the bag worms this year before they strip and perhaps kill your trees.

Farmers may not be as gullible as some people believe and certainly they know the benefits derived from parity price supports.

If people wouldn't believe the rumors they hear they wouldn't hear them.

The rich and well-to-do just naturally believe that they should rule the country.

Food Crop Not Keeping Abreast of World Demand

World production of basic crops is little more than keeping with the increase in world population, according to the United Nations Food and agriculture situation throughout the world.

Included was a report of a serious food shortage in two areas in China, which, it was thought, might possibly cause the starvation of millions of persons. Tragic as the plight of these people may be, it is not surprising in view of the long period of warfare that has disturbed Chinese production.

The organization found that the only significant recovery in crops and foods is occurring in Western Europe. This is no doubt, partly explained by the economic assistance which the United States has rendered to this area.

Defense To Call For Increased Money From USA

Sumner H. Slichter, the distinguished Harvard economist, is author of the lead article in the June issue of The Atlantic. Called "Our Best Defense," it discusses some of the staggering problems that confront this country today--notably the "cold war," which he believes will continue indefinitely, and which may cause our military expenditures to double by 1960.

In one section he writes: "There are three major trends that must be halted or substantially retarded during the next decade if the economy is not to be basically transformed or if it is not to be confronted with grave new problems. These trends are the rapid rise in government expenditures, the rapid spread of government intervention in business, and the drop in the influence of business in the community."

Dr. Slichter points out that in the last 20 years Federal spending has increased thirteen-fold while the dollar value of the output of the nation has increased only about 2.5 times. He suggests a number of specific ways to reduce government expenditures. One is to cut the amounts now being spent to hold up the prices of farm products. Another is to reduce the spending for trade school education for veterans--in many cases, as he observes, the schools and the courses involved are of scant educational value. And still another is to reduce purchasing of real-estate mortgages by the government. Of this he says, "In the present fiscal year such purchases are costing about 1.3 billion dollars. There is no reason why private capital should not finance the real-estate industry."

Of the second major trend, government intervention in business, Dr. Slichter says that not all of the regulations that come into being in relatively recent years are bad. But he adds, "If the spread of government intervention in economic activities continues during the next decade as rapidly as in the last 20 years, the year 1960 will see the United States a far more completely regulated economy than it is today. Can this spread be substantially retarded?" Dr. Slichter seems to think it can though here he is none too sure. In this connection, he urges that private enterprise, particularly in the real-estate field, be as vigorous as possible. He also says, "If employers and trade-unions were to agree on basic rules to govern industrial relations, a considerable withdrawal of government from that field might occur."

Finally, he believes it highly important that businessmen regain some of the influence which they have lost. For businessmen, he writes, "see many problems or aspects of problems that other groups do not see. Hence, they help produce better-balanced and better informed public policies."

Dr. Slichter's views coincide with those of other thoughtful observers of the age we live in. Not everyone is pleased with current trends and the present policies of the government.

Construction Plan Continues at WT

Construction projects, repairs and remodeling now going on the campus will give WTSC a "new look" by the time students start coming in for the fall semester. Involving an expense of several thousand dollars, it is the first time in WT's history that so much construction work is being done on the campus at one time.

A new gymnasium being erected west of Buffalo Stadium at a cost of $379,000, is expected to be ready for the basketball season next year. The chapel, conceived and promoted by Dr. J. A. Hill, President Emeritus, has had to suffer a few minor deviations from the original plans when Dr. Hill failed to reach the $50,000 goal he had set. The amount collected would not afford a tile roof so the chapel will have a shingle roof instead, this being the greatest alteration made to the plans.

The Administration building's halls are being done in "Eye Rest Green" from the wainscoting to the floor and the upper walls will be done in "Suntone." If possible, no two rooms will be of the same color.

Among other of the important projects is the remodeling of the Speech building. The stage of the Branding Iron Theater is being enlarged to about three times the original size and the building is being stuccoed.

The Buffalo Band house, Palo Duro and Tierra Blanca halls are being stuccoed too. The stuccoing will receive an oriental dash of

Ralph Wilson Snares 16 Pound Blue Catfish

A blue catfish that tipped the scales at an even 16 pounds was landed Sunday afternoon at Buffalo Lake by Ralph Wilson.

Wilson caught the forked tail catfish while fishing off Rocky Point, a short distance above the dam on the south side of the lake.

He was fishing with a throw line and baiting with chicken entrails, a popular bait for catfish.

"There was some discussion about whether it was a blue catfish or a channel catfish," says Glen McKenzie, Buffalo Lake concessionaire. "We finally decided it was a blue catfish as it wasn't speckled like a channel catfish," he said.

The catfish is one of the biggest ever landed from Buffalo Lake although it is several pounds short of the lake record, a 21-pounder caught in 1946.

"George Washington Slept Here" Is First Summer Theatre Production

"George Washington Slept Here," by Koffman and Hart will be the first production of the Summer Theatre group. The play will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, June 21 and 22, under the direction of Margaret Echols Moore. Mrs. Moore also directed the first summer theater play last year, "Wendell Cain," newest addition to the speech department faculty will be technical director for the play as well as taking a part in the play.

The comedy tells the tribulations of a family man who craves a place in the country to call his own. This is the record of the Fuller family, Newton and his wife, Annabelle, and their daughter, Madge, who take one of those windowless, waterless, and almost roofless houses that are scattered around the countryside. The resulting problems include a quarrel with a neighbor who owns the road to the Fuller house, the attempted elopement of the daughter, Madge, with a summer-theater actor, and the usual many week-end guests.

Ramona High, Skellytown, Rena Leslie; Carl Mitchell, Canyon, Clayton Evans; Odell Wilkes, Happy, Leggett, Prazier; Gilbert Dickens, White Deer, Tommy Hughes; Laddelle Cox, Clarendon, Sue Barrington; Roberta Corder, White Deer, Miss Wilcox; Jim Livingstone, Amarillo, Mr. Prescott; Equilla Roberts, Hollis, Katie; Pat Cantrell, Tulla, Mrs. Douglas; Joyce Rushmer, Panhandle, Hester; Jerry Williams, Canyon, Raymond; and Wendell Cain, Canyon, formerly speech instructor at White Deer, Uncle Stanley.

Jerry McDonough, Barbara Woodson and Ramona High are all new to the summer theater. The other actors and actresses have appeared before in at least one West Texas State production.

Roberta Corder played the leading role in "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" last summer. Her role of Miss Wilcox in "George Washington Slept Here" has no speaking part of it. Throughout the entire play, the most noticeable part of her expression is the smile on her face.

Elimination of Competition Is Dangerous Policy

In a speech Dr. Harold G. Moulton of the Brookings Institution said, "Government regulations of trade and industry should be confined to the checking of collusive efforts to eliminate competition. Any attempt to prevent one company from growing at the expense of others is a negation of the very object of competition. Any policy designed to limit size...as we are now trying to do, or to check the evolution of industry, can only result in seriously retarding economic progress."

A particularly good example of that policy, in view of many, is the government's antitrust suit to dismember the nation's largest grocery chain. No one can reasonably argue that this chain has anything resembling a monopoly--you can go into any community where it has outlets and see its competitors flourishing vigorously on every hand. Therefore, it is reasonable to assume, the government's case is really based on the idea that bigness is bad per se--and so the big company must be broken down into smaller units, regardless of the possible effect on producers, consumers, and our living and working standards.

It is difficult to conceive of a more dangerous philosophy. Big business--whether in retailing or anything else--has performed a magnificent service for the country. And so have middle-sized and small business, right down to the one-man shop. Shall we deliberately destroy a delicately balanced economic system which has proven an unprecedented success?

Irving Ives, U. S. Senator from New York: "In a representative democracy we are our own government."

50-50 Chance That You Have Some Sort of Ringworm Disease

It is a 50-50 bet that you have some sort of ringworm infection. Check to see. Chances are it will be in your scalp hair, on your groin, or on your feet—either on the soles or between the toes. If you don't find it, you're lucky, because while it isn't serious, its itching and persistence is very annoying.

A fungus—the same one that causes food to mold—causes ringworm. It's one of the world's most common ailments, with authorities estimating that half of the world's population is affected. It is more common this time of year than any other.

Animals get it too. As a matter of fact, cats, dogs, rabbits, mice, and fowls are frequently the source of infection in man. A child plays with an infected dog, the dog's hair brushes the child, and the child stands an excellent chance of ringworm infection.

The scales which are formed can cause new infections on the body, so an infected person has to be careful to keep it from spreading. Advanced cases exude a clear, runny fluid—it "weeps," as doctors say, and the fluid can cause breaking out on whatever part of the body it touches. Children are especially vulnerable to scalp ringworm. Epidemics are usually started in schools or institutions.

Swimming pools, locker rooms, and gyms are potent sources of infection. Everyone has heard of "athlete's foot." It is nothing more than a type of ringworm. So is the so-called "barber's itch."

Preventive measures call for avoiding persons and animals known to be infected. Swimming pools, gyms, locker rooms, and the like can do their part toward ringworm control by boiling towels, swimming suits and their other public facilities for 30 minutes. Foot baths are also worthwhile.

The best thing to do is to keep clean at all times. But if you happen to get ringworm, or if you have it now, it will be better for all concerned if you report to your family doctor immediately. He'll recommend medication designed to shorten the course and lessen the severity of the infection.

Public Opinion Decided Issues Railroad Strike

The Atlantic Constitution commenting on recent labor troubles in the railroads said, "The American people do not believe that in the highly mechanized Diesel cabs there is the slightest need for an extra doing fireman...The fact-finding boards, usually partisan to the Brotherhoods, twice refused the demand."

"We do not believe ambitious labor leaders, anxious to build their personal power within their unions, are yet strong enough to win a strike which does not have at least some public opinion behind it."

This is undoubtedly the reason why the firemen's union withdrew its demand and brought the railroad strike to an end—it was clear to all that public opinion was solidly against that make-work scheme. And yet the issue may come up again, and so its importance has not diminished.

Every real authority has said that there is no reason for enlarging Diesel engine crews. The decision of the two Presidential fact-finding boards were based on an exhaustive study of all available facts and opinions. And the public interest in the issue is very high—for, when any industry is saddled with unnecessary costs, it is the public which does the paying.

If the rail unions are wise, they will not again make demands which are so clearly opposed to the public interest and the welfare of the industry which provides good jobs for their members.

Joseph A. Loftus, newspaper writer: "A period of relative calm has settled over the labor-management front."

Robert J. McCracken, preacher: "No civilization can be maintained whose scale of values is solidly materialistic."

That Makes It Quite Clear

Many of us are slow on posting up on Einstein's new theory because we haven't yet got a clear idea of his first one.

A western professor can help us in this respect.

"When a man holds a pretty girl on his lap for an hour it seems like a minute. But when he sits on a hot stove a minute it seems to him like an hour. That's relativity."

Visitor — I suppose, Joany, that you are expecting Santa Claus to fill your stockings with all sorts of nice presents? (The boy was from Boston).

Joany (aged six)—Assuredly not. I threw the Santa Claus myth into discard years ago. I have no sympathy with those, either young or old, who are obsessed by such an antiquated and obsolete complex.

Dollar for Dollar— you can't beat a PONTIAC

A Wonderful Performer —at a Wonderful Price!

Almost everybody has a good word for the immensely popular Pontiac. The most enthusiastic spokesmen are those who own this great car. The facts behind this admiration of Pontiac are very simple—

Pontiac is America's lowest-priced Straight Eight. Pontiac is the lowest-priced car with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Pontiac is the most beautiful thing on wheels. And Pontiac is famed everywhere for its dependability and economy.

Those are the facts, and they are impressive. But they are a lot more impressive to the person behind the wheel of a Pontiac. He knows for sure that dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac!

Foreign Relations Was Discussed at Rotray Luncheon

Allen Early of Amarillo was the speaker Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon. He was introduced by Dr. J. A. Hill.

Mr. Early had recently heard John Foster Dulles speak at the 10th anniversary of Early's graduating class at Vanderbilt. He reviewed the changes which had taken place in ten short years. Few Boys of his class ever dreamed of being drawn into the world war. They had a poor opinion of the peacetime soldier.

Dulles pointed out that the conflict between America and Russia was one of ideals. Spiritual values of America cannot be compromised to meet those of the dictator ideals of Russia.

Propaganda is the greatest weapon of Russia. The speaker advocated that America set up its own propaganda in order to prevent our society from being affected. "Communism appeals to the down and out," to those who are hopeless in their present state.

Dulles advocated a preventative war. Even if Russia should be defeated, Communism will not be defeated.

On the other hand the future is not so black as one hears from many sides. America must mobilize for peace. "The impossible takes a little longer," stated the speaker. He believes that our leaders will find a solution instead of throwing up their hands and declaring that we must have war instead of peace.

The Rotary Club voted to pay $50 per month to the Recreation Council for the coming year.

Visitors were: Kempel Wilhelm of Independence, Mo.; J. J. Cundiff of De Soto, Mo.; Elmer Wooten and C. R. Burrow of Canyon; G. L. Meyers of Denton; Bert Masters, Bob Williams, Emil Myers, L. W.

Jackson, Roy Boger, Norris Ewing, J. H. Brown, Frank Storm, Jr., Guy Carlander of Amarillo; N. E. Milburn, F. M. Cogdell of Hereford; H. W. Amick, T. Richardson, A. Roberts, all of Panhandle.

K. E. Frieze returned Wednesday from Terrell where he accompanied Mrs. Frieze when they were called two weeks ago by the death of her mother, father and aunt in a car-truck collision. Mrs. Frieze will return home by the end of this week.

Lt. Sandy Oliver arrived here Sunday from West Point where he graduated from the U. S. Military Academy last week. He is on a two months' leave and will then report for three year duty in Japan. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oliver did not return home until Tuesday after attending the graduation exercises of their son.

Mrs. Pauline Grove and Robert, Rupaula, and Nola Blanche visited in the home of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wilson, last week.

Mrs. Lee Chandler, Clinton, Oklahoma, has been visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McAtee.

Pastorium Setting For Small-Fite Double Ring Ceremony

Seven branch candelabra entwined with woodwardia fern, flanked on either side with baskets of white gladioli, and backed with a large spray of woodwardia fern, formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Gerry Small, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Small, to John Marvin Fite, son of Mrs. Melinda Fite, all of Canyon.

The wedding was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, June 11, at 4:00 o'clock at the Baptist pastorium in Canyon. Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church read the double ring ceremony.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Mrs. J. D. Barker. Selections included "I Love Thee" by Crieg, and "My Hero" by Straus, which was played while Wilbert Long lighted the candles. Accompanied by Mrs. Barker, Bill Davis sang "Because" by D'Hardelot, and Debussy's "Claire de lune" was played softly during the exchange of vows. Traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Sue Ann Colwell attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a yellow organdy gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice, portrait neckline, and a full gathered skirt. Her bouquet was an old fashioned nosegay of yellow maroon daisies.

Guy Brant of Odessa, formerly of Canyon, was best man. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was a picture in a gown of white marquisette styled with a portrait neckline, fitted bodice, and full gathered skirt. Her veil of illusion fell from a white pearl tiara, and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid on top of a white prayer book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Small chose a navy blue sheer dress, and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Fite, mother of the bridegroom, chose a navy blue dress of crepe, and dusty rose accessories. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth, and centered with the three tiered wedding cake, flanked by white candles in crystal holders. Mrs. Elmer Fite of Borger, and Mrs.

James E. Fite of Olton, sisters-in-law of the bridegroom, presided at the serving table. Mrs. Carl Small of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the guest book, and Mrs. Ray Small, of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride assisted in the gift display room.

The couple left after the reception for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a yellow salina cloth dress with white accessories, and a white orchid corsage. The couple will be at home in Canyon at 705 22nd Street.

Mrs. Fite is a graduate of Canyon High School and is attending West Texas State College where she is majoring in primary education, and is a member of Delta Zeta Chi sorority.

Mr. Fite is also a graduate of Canyon High School and attended West Texas State College where he majored in business management. He is now employed at Bellah's Super Market in Canyon.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fite, John and Marilyn of Borger, and Dr. and Mrs. James E. Fite and Michael of Olton.

TOUJOURS LA POLITESSE

An angler, who had been trying to hook something for the last six hours, was sitting gloomily at his task, when a mother and her small son came along.

"Oh," cried out the youngster, "do let me see you catch a fish!"

Addressing the angler the mother said, severely: "Now, don't you catch a fish for him until he says, 'Please.'"

Wanda Parker To Wed Leo H. McWilliams

Hoover Plan to Kick Commies Out Is Opposed

The suggestion of former President Herbert Hoover that the United Nations be recognized without the Communist members sounds somewhat sensible to many Americans, in view of the disturbing conflicts within the organization.

Nevertheless, the Prime Minister of Pakistan, the Prime Minister of India and the representative of the Philippine Republic have promptly served notice that the suggestion is "out of order."

The spokesmen of these countries, no doubt, take cognizance of the danger that might engulf them if Russia goes on a march. They probably realize that, in the organization of the United Nations, they may hold something of a balance of power between the western powers and the Communistic group.

Certainly, they have nothing to lose by maintaining the United Nations and much to worry about if the democratic nations of the earth get together in a federation of states, based on the concerted cooperation of free peoples and free peoples alone.

BOYCE HOUSE Gives You Texas

Do you know how the Brazos River received its name?

The Brazos, by the way, is probably the twistingest river in Texas. One day a man sitting up on the bank fishing caught a big one and, in tossing the line over his shoulder, the fish got loose and fell in the river behind him—11 miles upstream! The Brazos sure does twist and bend.

But as to how the river received its name: Brazos is Spanish for "arms." The tradition is that in the days when Texas belonged to Spain, a party of Spaniards got lost in Texas and wandered until they were about to die of thirst. They prayed for aid and pretty soon they caught sight of a river and of course drank their fill.

One of the Spaniards said, "We have been saved by the arms of God—los brazos de Dios." Another said, "Let us name the river that—Brazos de Dios." Later it was shortened to "Brazos."

Did you know that there used to be a lake of oil out on the Gulf not far from the coast of Texas? An oil pond, the old-timers called it. It was a mile wide and several miles long and was down near Sabine Pass. Captains of ships said that in times of storm, they hastened to the oil pond and they found comparative calm and safety.

The lake of oil had been there from time immemorial, said a sworn statement made by half a dozen ship captains nearly 50 years ago. But soon after the great Spindletop oil field was discovered and developed not far away, the lake of oil disappeared from the Gulf.

Someone has said, "Tell the truth—it will confuse your enemies and amaze your friends."

Meat Prices Are Based on Policy Supply, Demand

One of the best explanations of the economic factors that influence the price of meat appears in a report recently issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

It says, "Based on prewar supply we have not had a shortage of meat in any of the war or postwar years. What forced meat prices up has not been short supply but greatly increased demand. This high demand rose from increased population and from greatly increased disposable personal income and a higher percentage of that income was used to buy meat."

"In 1949 per capita consumption was 145 pounds. In 1935-39 per capita consumption was 126 pounds. Prospective per capita meat consumption for 1950 is about 150 pounds. The same demand factors that were at work previously will largely influence 1950 retail prices: the amount of disposable personal income and the proportion of that income used to buy meat."

In other words, meat prices are established by the workings of supply and demand. That is true of the prices of all commodities in a free market. Nobody "fixes" those prices. Nobody profiteers at the expense of the consumer. Competition, which is particularly intense in all the branches of industry, takes care of that. Nobody decides whether meat shall be expensive or cheap, abundant or scarce. Supply and demand, as expressed by producer and consumer, is the determining factor.

The free market is far more responsive to the needs and abilities of a people than any other form of market yet devised. It is the backbone of our economic strength.

Dowd-Helmich Wedding Rites Read in First Baptist Church

In an impressive double ring ceremony Miss Martha Jean Dowd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dowd, became the bride of Robert Christian Helmich, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Helmich of Minden, Louisiana, at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, June 10 at the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor, read the services. An elaborate arrangement of palms of emerald foliage flanked by two baskets of white gladioli formed a background for the altar which was draped with white satin crossed with satin ropes and topped with clustered white candles.

with a green base. Steps leading to platform and the four candelabra made a mock arch.

Miss Anita Davis at the organ played "Claire de Lune," "Always," "Indian Love Call," "Traumerei" for pre-nuptial selections. Miss Frankie Phillips sang "Yours Is My Heart Alone" before the ceremony and "Prayer Perfect" as a prayer at the end of the ceremony. Traditional wedding marches were used for all marches except the entrance of the bride. The bride entered as the bridegroom sang to her "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Harold Billings of Baytown and college roommate of the bride was matron of honor. Her pink taffeta and net gown was fashioned with a rounding net yolk, fitted bodice which was terminated with a folded peplum of taffeta draped to form a large bow in the back. Her halo hat was of matching net. Her bouquet was a cascade of pink sweetheart roses centered with gardenias on a green background.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Bernard Warren and Mrs. Ernest Sykes wore identical pink dresses, patterned after that of the matron of honor. They carried cascade bouquets of matching pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Louis Henders and Mrs. Bill Howse of Wichita, Kansas, wore matching dresses to the other attendants in green taffeta and net with halo hats. They carried candle nosegays of pink Ester reed daisies centered with a pink candle.

John Hill of Houston, college roommate of the bridegroom served as best man. Groomsmen were Bernard Warren of Canyon and Jimmie Nelson of Borger. Ushers were David Morris and Charles Kennedy of Ft. Worth.

Ringbearer, Richard Himlich of Minden, La., small brother of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed with small roses.

Entering on the arm of her brother, Bob Dowd, the bride was met at the altar by her father who gave her in marriage. She was a vision of loveliness in a lustrous white satin gown designed with a rounded yoke of corded lace, a fitted bodice, which buttoned down the back with tiny self satin buttons. The long tapered sleeves ended in a point over the hands. A peplum of lace adorned the bouffant hoop skirt which terminated in a chapel train. Her bouquet was a cascade of white and pale pink sweetheart roses and bouvardia, with white satin streamers tied in love knots.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dowd chose a Navy blue street-length dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias and stephanotis. Mrs. Helmich, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink street-length dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and stephanotis.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple was honored with a reception in the home of the bride's parents. House decorations were white gladioli and pink delite roses with pink candles.

Centerpiece of the refreshment table was tall silver and crystal candelabra with five tiered pink candles. The three-tiered bride and groom cake and the punch bowl were encircled with small, pink bows and maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Bob Dowd presided at the guest book. Mrs. Henders and Mrs. Howse presided at the bride's table. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Mark Foster, Bobby Foster, Mrs. Charles Peckenpau, Miss Mable Rowan and Miss Viola Ballard.

For a wedding trip through Colorado the bride traveled in a pink light wool gabardine suit with navy trim and navy accessories. After June 25 the couple will be at home at Fort Worth where they will both be in school.

Mrs. Helmich graduated from Canyon High School with honors, attended West Texas State College and Baylor University, where she received her B. A. in English and education in 1947 and M. A. in education in 1949. She taught in Kaufman High School 1947-48 and the past year at Arlington Heights High School in Ft. Worth. While in college she was active in Pi Alpha Lambda social club, Kappa Delta Pi and Pi Gamma Mu honor societies.

The bridegroom attended Louisiana Tech and Baylor University where he received his B. A. in Bible, English and Greek in 1949. He was active in the Ministerial Alliance, Louisiana Club, and the Baylor Bards while in college. The past year he has attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Ft. Worth and was active in the choir, "Southwestern Singers" there. He has been pastor of the Mt. View Baptist Church near Hillsboro for the past two years, but after June 25 he will begin his pastorate at Patton Baptist Church near Waco.

Cleaning Fluid Is Dangerous Unless Carefully Handled

There's a lot of punch corked up in that little bottle of cleaning solvent out on the back porch. State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox called them "hazardous, when special precautions are not used."

It seems that solvent vapors are heavier than air, which means, according to Dr. Cox, that they will collect at floor levels. The danger of using solvent for such household chores as taking spots off the linoleum, or cleaning dirt or grease off the back steps, is that you have to get on your knees to do the job.

And when you're on your knees, you're closer to the accumulation of solvent vapor.

The state health officer proved his whole point with this story:

A man attempted to remove the grease from the underside of his car by spraying it with a spray gun he had brought home from his construction job. He was found dead under the car, suffocated by the vapor of the cleaning agent.

Proper use of cleaning solvent, says the doctor, calls for opening all the doors and windows when cleaning floors, the underside of household furniture, or clothing. The idea is to get as much ventilation as possible. A fan blowing on the working area is helpful.

When doing a job of this sort, work for a short time—avoid inhaling the vapors as much as possible—and then get into the fresh air for a minute or two.

The first symptoms of vapor poisoning are nausea, dizziness, headache and fatigue. When you notice them, get outside as soon as possible, the health official advises.

Audrey Mahle Is Bride of Harold C. Martin, Jr. In Impressive Double Ring Ceremony in Lubbock

Miss Audrey Nell Mahle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mahle of Lubbock, became the bride of Harold Clark Martin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. (Bill) Martin of Canyon, in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the First Christian Church, Lubbock, Thursday evening, June 1.

Horace Coffman, Church of Christ minister, read the double ring service before the candle lighted altar decorated with palms, woodwardia fern and baskets of white gladioli. The bridal aisle was marked with satin bows and candles.

Gerre Hancock, organist, played a pre-nuptial concert of wedding music and accompanied Mr. Coffman, the minister, as he sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "Always." "Claire de Lune" formed a soft musical background for the marriage vows. Traditional marches were played for the processional and recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of madonna white satin styled with a sheer drop-shoulder yoke and a fitted bodice accented with lace. The voluminous skirt extended into a short train. Her veil of lace was caught by a halo of seed pearls and her bouquet of orchids and white roses with shower streamers of white satin with white rose petals tied in love knots, was arranged on a white prayer book.

A gown of pink faille taffeta was worn by Miss Janette Mahle, sister of the bride and maid of honor. She carried a crescent styled arm bouquet of roses accented with stephanotis. Similar dresses were worn by the bridesmaids, Misses Ann Amason and Jeneva McDougal of Canyon and Charis Pinkston and Koelle Smith of Lubbock. They carried red roses.

Mary Evelyn Mahle of Canyon and Carron Ann Mahle, flower girls, wore pink dresses and carried baskets of rose petals. Gary Somoller, wearing a white satin suit, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Carl E. Hair of Canyon was best man and ushers were H. A. Mahle, Jr., of Amarillo, and Billy Samples, Glenn Prater, Clarence Maynard and Goldie Curry, all of Canyon. Dorothy Schuler and Patsy Redwine who lighted candles wore dresses fashioned after the bridesmaids'.

A three-tiered wedding cake surrounded by the attendants' bouquets centered the refreshment table at the reception given in Fellowship Hall of the church immediately following the ceremony. Baskets of white gladioli and greenery were used throughout the hall. Mrs. C. F. Wakefield presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Bill Lee served the cake and Mrs. J. C. Davis was at the bride's book.

Out of town guests included: Mrs. J. P. Winner and son of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mrs. Carl Hair, Mrs. S. M. Mahle, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Gladys Dixon and Sherma, Bob Busted, Garland Butler, Carroll Wilson, Bruce Winn, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martin, all of Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. O. Z. Ball and Shirley of Slaton; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stanton, Jr., of Washington, D. C.

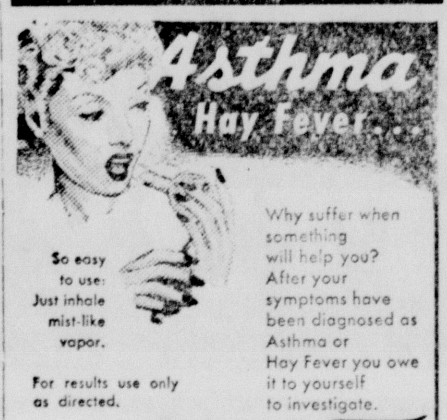

For a wedding trip to California the bride traveled in a navy blue dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Martin is a graduate of Lubbock High School and attended West Texas State for one year. Mr. Martin attended Canyon High School.

They will make their home near Canyon where Mr. Martin is associated with his father in stock raising.
